

Investment Analysts

We are looking for 2-3 Investment Analysts to join us during autumn 2023 or early 2024.

As an Investment Analyst, you will be part of a growing team focused on transactions in Sweden and the other Nordic countries. You will be involved in acquisition and sales processes where you will continuously evaluate new business cases as well as participate in the development of business plans and business development of new and existing projects. Meeting property owners (public and private), banks, investors and other counterparties will be a natural part of this position early on. This is a role for somebody who is driven and wants a business-oriented role in an entrepreneurial, high paced and exciting environment!

In this role, you will work in the Investment Management team, who support Slättö's Investment strategies within Real Estate in the Nordics. The role is based at Slättö's head office in central Stockholm.

Main tasks

- Financial modeling of investment opportunities
- Preparation of decision material for investment committee
- Continuously maintain contact with other property owners, advisors and other actors in the market
- Responsible for DD processes prior to property acquisitions and sales
- Assist in the preparation of quarterly reports for the funds
- Production of data and analysis supporting strategic business plans, acquisitions, and sales strategy

Candidate profile

The right candidate will have a university degree within finance, business administration, real estate or equivalent. In addition, you will have:

- 0-2 years' experience from a similar role gained from full time employment, relevant internships or a combination of both.
- Very good knowledge of Excel (Modeling) and Power Point
- Good ability to express yourself in speech and writing, both in Swedish and in English

We attach great importance to your personal qualities. We are looking for a person with high energy and very good ability to work in a team. You are a driven and independent person who is triggered by working towards sharp deadlines and delivers with high quality and is inspired by participating and contributing to a high performing professional team.
